Beyond Sexual Harassment: Conduct Covered by the 2024 Title IX Regulations	Grand River Solutions	May 6, 2024	Terri Messer	The 2024 Title IX final rules amend the current regulations much more expansively than the 2020 rules. The 2020 rules included a narrow definition of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The 2024 rules amend the existing framework for addressing sexual harassment but also expand the definition. The rules also, for the first time, prescribe specific procedures to address sex discrimination that isn't sexual harassment. In this session, we'll break down the types of conduct addressed by these rules and indicate which procedures apply.
