

Application for Academic Fresh Start

Read the following requirements and restrictions before applying for the Fresh Start Program:

- You must have been out of higher education for a minimum of four years.
- You must not have received a credential (degree, certificate, etc.) previously.
- All previous coursework where grades of "F" were earned, including Remedial/Developmental coursework, and transfer work, completed before the separation period, will be forfeited. The courses and grades will remain on the transcript, be noted appropriately, and be removed from the GPA calculation and degree requirements.
- "D" grades will only be forfeited if at the time of application, the listed student major requires a "C" or better.
- All credit hours will be included in attempted credit hour calculations.
- Permission for Fresh Start will only be granted once.
- Courses affected by Fresh Start are not honored by the Department of Veterans Affairs for benefits or Financial Aid.
