

ACADEMIC FRESH START APPLICATION

To be eligible for Academic Fresh Start, you must meet all of the following requirements:

- You have not attended any colleges, universities, or trade schools in the last four years prior to enrolling at JSCC.
- You have not received a credential (degree, certificate, etc.) from a college, university, or trade school. This includes diplomas, certificates, and licenses from technical colleges.
- You have not been granted Academic Fresh Start in the past.

If you are granted Academic Fresh Start, all college credits with an “F” grade will be forfeited. If your degree program requires a “C” grade or higher, “D” grades will also be forfeited. The courses and grades will remain on your transcript but will be removed from the GPA calculation and degree requirements. All credit hours will be included in attempted credit hour calculations.

All previous college transcripts are required before your Academic Fresh Start application can be processed.

Academic Fresh Start applications are processed at least 14 days after the start of the semester. You must be enrolled and attending classes before your application can be reviewed.
