

JACKSON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIM INFORMATION SHEET

If you are a victim of domestic violence, you may contact the nearest District Attorney's Office or Municipal Prosecutor's Office to file a criminal complaint. You also have the right to go to court having jurisdiction over Domestic Relations (General Sessions Court) and ask for an emergency protection order which could include the following:

1. Prohibit your abuser from threatening to commit or committing further acts of domestic violence.
2. Prohibit your abuser from stalking, harassing, telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with you, directly or indirectly.
3. Remove your abuser from your residence.
4. Order your abuser to stay away from your residence, school, place of employment, or any other specified place that you or another designated household member go to in order to be safe.
5. Prohibit your abuser from using or entering your vehicle or a vehicle you occupy.
6. Prohibit your abuser from using or possessing a deadly weapon.
7. Direct your abuser to surrender any firearm owned or possessed by the person, if the court finds the person was in actual possession of or used a firearm while the abuse was occurring.
8. Request a peace officer to accompany you to your residence to assure your safe possession of the residence, vehicle, or other items (regardless of ownership), or to ensure your safe removal of personal items from the residence.
9. Give you temporary custody of a minor child and arrange for visitation with a minor child if the safety of the minor child and the petitioner can be protected.
10. Prohibit your abuser from consuming controlled substances.
11. Require your abuser to pay support for you or a minor child in your care.
12. Require your abuser to reimburse you for your expenses caused by domestic violence, including medical bills, or for your costs in getting a protective order.
13. Order your abuser to participate in a Department of Corrections approved intervention program for batterers.
14. Other relief the court determines to be necessary for your safety
